

New Mexico – Congressman Harry Teague will travel to Belen, Grants and Acoma this Monday, December 21 and Tuesday, December 22. On Monday, the Congressman will host a roundtable discussion in Belen with local law enforcement and community leaders to discuss how stimulus funding has impacted the Belen Police Department and public safety. He will then meet with Fire Chief Manny Garcia and tour the Belen Fire Department before meeting with constituents and presenting a flag flown over the U.S. Capitol to the Belen Senior Citizen Center.

On Tuesday, the Congressman will begin the day by meeting with constituents at his 70th “Harry in Your Hometown” since taking office in January. He will then join representatives from Acoma Pueblo Tribal Leadership and USDA for the groundbreaking of the new Acoma Wastewater Facility.

All events are open to the public and interested media and residents are encouraged to attend.
